3.2 HOME MATCH REAL OR ATLÉTICO

Make your guests' dreams come true and visit the famous Santiago Bernabéu Stadium, home of Real Madrid - or la Peineta, where Atlético is playing their home matches.

When Real Madrid's attacking frontline combines to fight their way through the other team's defence, an exciting spectacle is guaranteed. On the other side of the city, los colchoneros (nickname for the fans of Atlético) are well known as hotheads beyond Spain. The game will be held either on Saturday or Sunday. The exact date and time will be publicised around three weeks before the match.

You can choose between a VIP entry ticket, which includes a visit to a lounge or a private skybox as well as hot and cold buffet, or tickets only, with best view on the pitch. After the match we will pick you up and bring you back to the Hotel/Restaurant.

3.3 HOTELS

HOTEL UNICO

This “unique” hotel awaits you right on Madrid’s “Golden Mile”. It is housed in a 19th-century palace which was transformed into this luxurious 44-room boutique hotel a few years ago. Its elegant facade conceals a regal interior architecture with modern rooms that boast high ceilings and large windows.

The building’s elegance, shown in its stately main staircase and the marble mosaics in its public areas, coexist with the absolute quality of its spacious rooms in which warm, neutral colours make the guests feel as if they were staying in one of the aristocratic private residences of the upscale district of Salamanca, where it is indeed located.

THE PRINCIPAL

The Principal Madrid Hotel is much more than a luxurious modern boutique hotel. Its prime location in the heart of Madrid, its exclusive entrance, and its 76 elegantly appointed rooms make it the place to stay for your visit at the capital.

The stunning Terraza (rooftop terrace, 7th floor) and the Ático Restaurant (penthouse, 6th floor) boast the best panoramic views of downtown Madrid.

It's in the restaurant where avant-garde haute cuisine meets classic cocktails coupled with the best music, which are reasons enough not to miss the opportunity of discovering this renovated building, now one of the capital's must-see sights.

HOTEL WELLINGTON

The Hotel Wellington greets you with unparalleled luxury and a prime location in Madrid's famed Salamanca neighbourhood - just moments away from Retiro Park, as well as superb shopping and fascinating attractions.

The rooms and suites of Hotel Wellington in Madrid boast sophisticated design and a wide range of wonderful amenities.

Be sure to sample the award-winning flavors in the on-site restaurants during your stay, and of course, no visit to the Hotel Wellington Madrid is complete without spending some time in the rooftop urban garden – the largest of its kind in the world.

RAMON FREIXA

The Ramon Freixa is housed in the Hotel Único, a 19th century mansion which was converted into a 44 bedroom luxury boutique hotel. With an extraordinary location in the middle of Madrid's "Golden Mile", excellence in service is a distinguishing hallmark of this restaurant.

The Ramon Freixa restaurant has been awarded two Michelin Stars. In the kitchen there is daring, innovation and wisdom, as well as impeccable technique and a number of visual and sensory tricks. A blend of tradition and avant-garde, madness and common sense in perfect harmony.

BOTÍN

Botín Restaurant, which was founded in 1725, is the oldest in the world according to the Guinness Book of Records and one of the touchstones of Madrid's traditional cuisine. Over the years it has won numerous awards and recognitions.

Today, the business is being run by the third generation of the González family: Antonio, José and Carlos. All of them are dedicated to achieving Botín's age-old commitment to not only spoiling the stomachs of their guests, but also reaching their hearts for at least three hundred more years to come.

CASA LUCIO

Right in the heart of Madrid, Casa Lucio has become an attraction of the capital, a must for tourists and a meeting point for locals. The street where it is located, the Cava Baja, is one of the oldest in Madrid, and already known in the seventeenth century for being the end and beginning of the way for mail carriers starting to different locations of Spain.

The building of Casa Lucio itself also has an undeniable history. In 1720 it was the legendary “Posada de San Pedro”, popularly known as “Meson del segoviano”. Well into the twentieth century, it became a meeting place for writers and different personalities of Madrid’s life.
